Memories . . .

Though all else may leave us, memories will always remain. It is perhaps one of the greatest capacities given to the human mind. In this, the most valuable of all treasuries, is stored all the acquired and past moments of our lives.

Now, we do not realize the true value of the priceless memories our school years hold for us. In years to come, when looking through the pages of this yearbook, we will fully understand that...

"Memory is the treasury and guardian of all things!"

Best of everything to a very nice & sweet girl. Have enjoyed the times we have had. Be good
Guy Holcomb

Pat Best of luck to you but most of all put your faith & trust in God

Lots of luck to a cute girl. Bob

Pat,

You are a very sweet and cute girl. I have enjoyed knowing you for the past two years. Stay as you are always!

Brenda Holland

Pat,

Your friendship has just meant loads to me this year although we have had different opinions on things at times. I wish that I had your look and personality but well, some have all the luck. No seriously, I can't tell you how much you have meant to me. We are almost 5 mois now and I know you will be just as popular as you are now. The memories that we have had and those that we are going to have, we will always cherish between us and I know the secrets we have told each other, we need not ever fear & then going any further. God gives lots & talent to some people and He really gave you your part. May He guide your life in whatever you do and always remember to try and do the right thing. Someday you will find the right one but it isn't right now. But when you really find him, you will make him the best. I could write on and on and on but my space is about to run out. So in closing I'll say, If you ever need me as a friend to talk over your problems, please call on me. I'll do anything in this world. I care for you.

Love,

Your very best friend,
always,
Barbara

Now the time has come for us to go From this school that we all love and
As we face life with a cheery smile Facing many hardships all the know. With a yearning in our heart, One we know that never shall depart.
while; In the future we will always strive, To keep our old school spirit alive.

BARRY CARROLL

Class Poem

We the students of today—the citizens of tomorrow,
Are ready, well prepared, we hope,
To face life's joy and sorrow.

Soon these days at Mineral Springs
Will be a memory only.
These halls no more will ring with the echoings
Of our vibrant, doubt-filled voices.

We are leaving behind all these things;
The friendship and fun, the doubts and fears,
Those moments that only school life brings.

Now we must press forward, ceasing to reflect
On days of yesteryear.
The demanding road requires our respect,
Our talents and our tears.

Saying good-bye to our high-school days
And going our separate ways,
We, each in his heart, hold dear
Memories of our Alma Mater.

Yes, we the citizens of today
Are ready, well prepared, we know,
To meet each crisis along the way.

INA VON McINNIS

Class Prophecy

I have just purchased a television set which will look into the future twenty years. As I switched on channel one, I saw an opera house with BECKY COLLINS the star performer. I also saw DONALD BOWLES and KATHY SHEEK managing the lights, sound, and scenery.

Channel two was televised from Radio City Music Hall. Announcing the performances at the Hall was JOE MERRILL. The first attraction was "The Goots" featuring KENT BARLOW and JAMES McGUIRE singing "You Ain't Nothing But a Sputnik." The following performance was the famous dancing team of JUDY MYERS, JANIE LANIER, JANE COVINGTON, EVIE CHEEK, BARBARA GRUBBS, SYLVIA LINDSAY, and CATHY MILLER. As the cameras focused on the audience, I saw JACK EDWARDS and his wife BRENDA LAWLESS. BARBARA DILLON and JERRY WILES were there, also. I recognized JERRY KAPP and DAVID BAUGUESS ushering SHIRLEY PREVETTE and FRANK RAGLAND to their seats on the third row.

On channel three I saw the set of Snow's Motion Picture Studios run by LORETTA and DAVID SNOW. I watched the filming of "The Short Cold Winter." Starring in the movie was CAROL PATTERSON with LARRY PINSON and BOBBY VANHOY as her leading men. BARRY JAMES and FRED THOMPSON directed the filming.

On channel four were the auto races. In the first race LEONARD McDOWELL, better known as "Fireball McDowell," took first place. Second place went to JUDY DOSS; third place, JERRY ELLER; and LINDA MILLER took fourth. DON FOSTER was getting his two-hundred horsepower ready for the second race.

Channel five showed a modeling agency. The ten highest paid models of 1980 are our own BRENDA VADEN, SHIRLEY TILLEY, JUDY FULK, FRANCES RING, HELEN MOORE, BRENDA MORAN, NANCY TAYLOR, LINDA TUTTLE, ALICE REID, and, last but not least, CHRISTINE McINNIS.

As I switched to channel six I saw the judging of the Miss and Mr. Universe contest. Some of the contestants were SUE PRIDDY, SHARON OSBORNE, BRENDA SPENCER, BONNIE MARTIN, and SHARRON HUTCHERSON. Mr. Universe was selected from CHESTER LOGGINS, DON MOORE, DOUG WALL, JOHN SPRINKLE, and WAYNE CHOPLIN.

The "I Love Lucille" show was playing on channel seven. Playing the part of Lucille was KATHERINE HARTLEDGE; Rickie was JAMES BATES; Ethel was SHELIA ROBERTSON; Fred was CARL SNOW.

After watching the Lucille show for five hours, I switched to channel eight. On channel eight the state fair in Yadkinville was being televised. As the camera moved around the fairgrounds, I saw the fat lady and tall man. Oh no, that can't be BARBARA COOKE and C. E. TOTTEN. I saw ROGER THOMPSON, RONALD CASEY, and JIMMY PITTS tasting the pies, and cakes made by VIVIAN NELSON, GAIL JOHNSON, LILLIE ANN HORN, and MARY LEE ALLGOOD. Competing against each other in the annual hool-a-hoop contest were JULIA HOLLAND and BARBARA GEORGE. As the camera showed the people walking up and down the midway, I saw LINDA PARKER, DONNA GREENE, DICK NEWSON, and RONALD ROSSER selling peanuts and candy. At the ticket booth giving everyone the wrong change was JOHN BONER.

Channel nine was presenting a program from the Walker Skating Rink run by DAVID WALKER. I saw SHIRLEY TESH, BILLY SIMMONS, DANNY SMITH, and EVELYN GILBERT skating across the ice. Opps, there goes TERRY HULS sliding across the ice but not on his skates.

On channel ten I saw the greatest rock n' roll show of the year. Performing in it were HENRY DAVIS, DON JOHNSON, CARL OWENS, DON HUTCHINS, and BARBARA EZZELL, a group known as the "Plates." The next performance was given by "The Grasshoppers." JERRY HEATH, GLENN FULP, BERNIE JACKSON and JAMES AMMONS sang "Lovers Never Say Adieus." Winding up the show was JOE DYMOTT singing "Soft Hearted Man."

Channel Eleven was a panel show. The panelists answered questions concerning love and marriage. FRED MICHAEL, INA VON McINNIS, TOMMY SHERMER, CLARENCE PARKER, and JANIS MARSHALL were featured on the panel. LAURA ANN COX, JEAN COOK, TONY UPCHURCH, PHYLLIS HOLDEN, and NORMA WHITMAN had so many problems that the panel gave up and turned in their buzzers.

On channel twelve I saw several school classes being taught. The English teacher was GEORGE CARROLL; the Latin teacher, BARBARA TRIVETTE; DON WILKINSON taught Algebra; and KAY THOMPSON taught shorthand. Could it be? Well it is! LINDSAY THROCKMORTON is the principal; and DON WELBORN, the dean.

Channel thirteen was an African Safari led by VICKIE WILLIAMS and BARRY CARROLL. As Vickie and Barry came upon the Beatnik Tribe, they were surprised to see PAUL PRIDDY as the Beatnik chief and WANDA JOHNS as his white goddess. I quickly switched to another channel—number fourteen. EUGENE CRESON was commenting on the latest news. Eugene announced our newly elected President as BETSY WILSON, Vice President as BETTY JO SHOUSE, Secretary as LINDA WHIPPLE, and JOAN CAUDLE as Treasurer. He also announced our foreign minister's as JUDY TUTTLE, Minister to Mars; DORIS FARMER and DIANE STYERS, as Ministers to the Moon; and NANCY TAYLOR and IRIS MOORE, as Ministers to Pluto.

Later as I was listening to the speech of our Vice President, she was interrupted by a special news bulletin and announced the launching of rocket X-100. Leaving on the ship were Captain JEAN KISER and her crew, PAT MOORE, VIVEN LIVENGOOD, JUNE SMITH, GLENDA JORDAN, ALLENE RISING, and LINDA TUTTLE. What is happening? The ship is coming back to earth. Oh, I see Jean forgot JEANETTE SMITH and Alene forgot JANE SHARPE.

Someone is shaking me. What has happened? What am I doing in the lab? I'm sure of one thing; I'll never leave that gas jet on again. Thank goodness it was all just a dream!

DONNA WELBORN

Class History

As this class history is written, it is hard to realize that the past four years have become a history for us. Thinking and remembering that September of 1956, we realize that time does fly! It seems like mere weeks ago instead of years—.

Yes, the beginning of our Freshman year can well be described in one word—confusing. It was so exciting to be in the whirl of high school. That first class meeting was an important event, too. We elected Judy Doss, President; Chester Loggins, Vice President; Sharron Hutcherson, Secretary; and Brenda Vaden, Treasurer to lead us through a somewhat hectic year.

The wind-up of our Freshman year was a class picnic at Tanglewood. This was a big event for everyone and now we all felt quite at ease in this high school routine.

The school year went by fast and the summer seemed even shorter.

But the beginning of school wasn't bad at all; it was a little hard to get accustomed to the idea of our now being Sophomores.

This year we chose Chester Loggins as President; David Bauguess, Vice President; Barbara George, Secretary; and Brenda Vaden, Treasurer. Among their duties, our Sophomore officers had the task of heading the preparations of a big event for all of us, the Sophomore Prom.

The Sophomore Prom—what a night to remember! The planning of entertainment, selling of tickets, decorating to carry out the theme of "Oriental Dreamland" are all such vivid memories to us.

This year we were all proud when Barbara Cooke was elected Vice President of the Student Council and Brenda Vaden Secretary for the coming year.

Honoring our class also was Vicki Williams chosen as attendant to Library Queen.

With the passing of another year, we were registering as Juniors, upper classmen at last!

This was a busy year. Our very capable leaders were as follows: David Bauguess, President; Chester Loggins, Vice President; Sharron Osborne, Secretary; and Brenda Spencer, Treasurer.

Many honors were bestowed upon various members of our class this year.

Chester Loggins, Barry Carroll, Ronald Casey, Doug Wall, Phillip Hutchins, Don Wilkinson, Carl Owen, and David Bauguess were inducted into the Key Club.

High honors were given to Barbara Cooke, Vicki Williams, Doris Farmer, Chester Loggins, Betsy Wilson, Wanda Johns, Shirley Dull, Frances Ring, and Barry Carroll when they were tapped for membership into the National Honor Society.

Barbara and Vicki also became members of the Quill and Scroll this year.

Our top Juniors of the year scholastically were Ina Von McInnis, Betsy Wilson, Frances Ring, Brenda Vaden, Jeanette Smith, Barbara Cooke, Sue Priddy, Shirley Dull, Charles Alspaugh, Chester Loggins, Bradley Hauser, Vicki Williams. They served as Junior Marshals, Ina Von being Chief Junior Marshal.

Of course, the remembrance of the Junior Play cannot be omitted. All the hard practicing on the part of the actors and work on the part of the members of committees were more than rewarded after the performance. "Here Comes Charlie" proved to be a success. Katharine Hartlage, John Sprinkle, Cathy Miller, Carol Patterson, Carl Owen, Ina Von McInnis, Jerry Wiles, Eugene Creeson proved their ability to act. Because of these and other performances, Eugene Creson, Katharine Hartlage, Carol Patterson, Jerry Kapp, Carl Owen, and Ina Von McInnis became members of the National Thespians Society.

Besides these honors, some of our girls were selected as beauty queens. Sharron Hutcherson was selected as homecoming queen and Barbara George as attendant.

Library queen for this year was Judy Fulk and one of her attendants was Donna Greene.

Little needs be mentioned to remind us of the highlight of the year—the Junior and Senior Prom. This year the theme "Evening in Paris" was chosen.

Yes, this was a busy and very short year. With the passing of summer, our memories now bring us to the present school year of 1960.

On September 1 of 1959, we began this, the biggest year of all!

Realizing the responsibility of our class President, we made a wise decision in choosing Chester Loggins to fill the job. Our other deserving officers were Vice President, Doug Wall; Secretary, Brenda Spencer; and Treasurer, Sharron Osborne Thomas.

With all the remembrances of this year, those of sports cannot go unmentioned. We had many participants in all sports from our class.

We recognize Jack Edwards, Doug Wall, Wayne Walker, Carl Snow, Barry Carroll, Chester Loggins, John Sprinkle, Tommy Shermer, Philip Hutchins, Don Welborne, Buster Ammons, Larry Piston, C.J. Dills, Lynn McDowell, Kay Thompson, and Frances Ring for their fine showing in athletics.

Keeping up that old school spirit and backing up the teams through thick and thin were our cheerleaders: Sharron Osborne Thomas, chief in her senior year, Barbara George and Judy Doss, co-chiefs, Sharron Hutcherson and Laura Ann Cox.

We were also glad when Sharron Osborne Thomas was selected as homecoming attendant.

The selection of superlatives, class flower, motto, class colors, ordering of invitations and fitting of caps and gowns are but a few incidents making up one priceless memory of a wonderful year!

Now we come to present day. This history of ours is but one chapter in the history that we are yet to make.

What does the future hold for us? Only the One over us all knows what is yet to come. All that we can do is strive always to do our best, to withstand all temptations, to maintain high principles, and live our lives in such a way to be in complete harmony with the One who has an answer for all our problems.

For we are responsible for the climax of our life's history.

BARBARA GEORGE

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1960, being of physically weak bodies and mentally fatigued minds from four years at hard labor, bequeath all the honors and privileges associated with the Seniors to the upcoming Senior class. However, the most prized possession, our cherished memories, will remain with us if our minds can withstand any more cramming.

To Mr. White and the teachers we've honored with our presence during the past four years, we apologize for the spitwads we've thrown, the erasers that were dusted on the walls, and our many stifled giggles you've had to put up with.

We, BRENDA SPENCER, JUDY MYERS, BARBARA COOKE, LINDA WHIPPLE, and SUE PRIDDY leave our ability to get diamonds and our book, How to Get a Man 101 Different Ways, to Wanda Blalock, Peggy Austin, and Barbara Fansler who could probably add some information to the book.

I, KAY THOMPSON, leave my title as "Hotrod Queen of MSHS" to Barbara West.

We, DAVID BAUGUESS and JOHN SPRINKLE, leave our good looks and pleasant dispositions to Jerry Vaden and Lanny and Larry (or is it Larry and Lanny?) Owens.

We, BRENDA VADEN and CARL OWEN, leave but not without our steadies at Hanes High.

We, JIMMY PITTS, FRANK RAGLAND, and LAWRENCE HUDSPETH, leave our height and builds to Stewart Fulk, and Ben and Frank Smith, who could use a little push; but we seem to be enjoying our he-man attributes.

We, JACK EDWARDS, WAYNE WALKER, DOUG WALL, and LEONARD McDOWELL leave our old worn out tennis shoes, our dirty gym lockers, and our sincere love for basketball to Jerry Byerly, Steve Walker, Lester Russell, and Lawrence Bracken.

We, SYLVIA BURTON, GLENDA JORDAN, NORMA WHITMAN, LINDA PARKER, and NANCY TAYLOR, leave our quiet ways to Danny Prior, Faye D. Jarvis, and Jerry Wells. They certainly could use them.

We, CATHY MILLER, TERRY HULS, JERRY WILES, BUSTER AMMONS, and LAURA ANN COX, leave our witty ways and ability for creating laughter and commotion wherever we go to Barbara Moore, Wade Saunders, and Lynn Hutchins.

We, CHARLES BANNER, JOE MERRILL, TOMMY SHERMER, C. J. DILLS, and DON WELBORN, leave the muddy football fields and dirty practice suits to Charles Teal, Dean Semones, and Larry Teal. Along with that goes a good word of advice to future quarterbacks: "To run the quarterback sneak successfully, you have to first be a sneaky quarterback!"

We, JAMES McGUIRE and KENT BARLOW, leave our musical talent and throat spray to Gary Lee and Butch Johnson. On second thought, what'll we do without them?

We, GEORGE CARROLL, LILLIE ANN HORN, and DONNA WELBORN leave Mr. Stroupe's crip course, chemistry, with much hatred in our mole-culess—er-r our hearts.

We, BETSY WILSON, JULIA HOLLAND, KATHY SHEEK, and CAROLYN ELDRIDGE each leave our "nose for news" and our position on the Beacon Staff to Penny Plemmons, Sharron Blanc, and Becky Hauser.

We, JUDY DOSS and BARBARA GEORGE, leave our love for colleges, especially Western Carolina, with no girls here because there's plenty of competition up there.

I, BARBARA TRIVETTE, leave my wardrobe to Carole Trivette. She'll probably get it anyway.

I, LARRY JARVIS, leave the privilege of getting out of school at lunch to Larry Southern.

We, VICKI WILLIAMS, SHIRLEY DULL, CHESTER LOGGINS, and INA VON McINNIS leave our I Q's to Robert Anderson, Norman DeHart, and John McCoy.

We, JEAN COOKE, JOAN CAUDLE, and LYNDA MILLER leave our roadmap to King to anyone who doesn't know how to get there. Wonder what's at King?

I, DON BOWLES, leave a bill for all the posters, lettering, and other art work I have done.

We, EVELYN GILBERT and BONNIE MARTIN, leave to the future majorettes a booklet entitled "The Art of Successful Strutting."

We, BETTY JO SHOUSE and BRENDA LAWLESS, leave our naturally curly hair to the Bobby Pin Brigade.

We, JEAN KISER and BRADLEY HAUSER, leave our seats in solid geometry to any poor soul who's brave enough to sit in them.

I, SYLVIA LINDSAY, leave the girls' basketball managership to Kathy Worrell.

We, JUDY FULK, SHARRON OSBORNE THOMAS, SHARRON HUTCHERSON, and VIVIEN NELSON, leave our good looks and pleasing appearances to Donna Duggins, Bonnie Parker, Sylvia West, and Kay Priddy who are holding out pretty well on their own.

We, JANIE LANIER, ALLENE RISING, JANIS MARSHALL, and CHRISTINE McINNIS, leave our broken down typewriters and well-worn shorthand pads to Betty Haneline, Eleanor Bell, and Brenda Holland.

We, TOMMY GOLDING, TONY UPCHURCH, FRED EVANS, BOBBY VANHOY, DANNY SMITH, JAMES BATES, and RONNIE SUTPHIN, leave our bus driver's license to go now to scrub the walls of the buses which were marked up by some little brats—er-r children.

Last Will and Testament

We, JOE DYMOTT and LINDSAY THROCKMORTON, leave Fleeta a new set of cue sticks. Maybe now we can shoot pool without skipping school.

We, BERNIE JACKSON, WESLEY McCRACKEN, DAVID SNOW, DON HUTCHENS, and DON MOORE, leave to go to work. Money's not everything but it sure helps!

We, JOHN BONER, CARL SNOW, and BARRY CARROLL, leave the art of shoe selling to those who know which foot is right and which is left.

We, SHEILA ROBERTSON, FRED MICHAEL, DON FOSTER, and HENRY DAVIS, leave our neat appearances to Becky Caudle, Donna Allen, Larry Rhoades, and Abigail Carter although they need no advice on this subject.

I, LORETTA SNOW, leave my "fella" over here. He's mine girls!

We, MARY LEIGH ALLGOOD, JEANETTE SMITH, EVIE CHEEK, and VIVIAN LIVENGOOD, leave our Miss America height to Bonnie Reid, Anne Clodfelter, and Judy King who, after looking a second time, don't need an inch of it.

We, EUGENE CRESON, BRENDA MORAN, LIBBY THROCKMORTON, and C. E. TOTTEN, will our good personality and good nature to Patricia Fulp, Patsy Myers, Betty McNeil, and Cheryl Watts.

I, DORIS FARMER, reluctantly leave the most treasured honor, that of being a National Honor Society member, to Roger Boles.

We, DAVID WALKER, KATHY DARNELL, DIANE STYERS, GLENN FULP, GAIL JOHNSON, and SHIRLEY TESH, leave to the bashful students a book entitled The Secret of Overcoming Shyness. They must have been born with that secret.

We, JANE SHARPE, JUNE SMITH, and JANE COVINGTON, leave our ability for true friendship to the members of the Mutual Admiration Society.

We, JOYCE HAYES and BARBARA GRUBBS, leave the back corner of Mrs. Thomas' room to any students who like to talk during homeroom as much as we did.

We, PAUL PRIDDY and WANDA JOHNS, leave our ability to get in the same classes together to Larry Posey and Barbara Dyer.

I, FRANCES RING, leave my basketball suit to Sarah Tuttle. It'll just about fit her.

I, WAYNE CHOPLIN, leave my tuba to Phillip Ingram if he's strong enough to carry it.

I, JUDY CRAVER, leave my love for going steady to Sara Burcham.

We, JOHN CREESON and JIMMY FRANKLIN, leave our jobs at Northside to anybody who likes to sweep floors as well as we.

WITNESSES
Huckleberry Hound
"Kookie"
Dick Clark
"Gidget"

We, PAT and IRIS MOORE, HELEN MOORE, leave our names to Betty Moore, Nancy Moore, and Jerry Moore.

We, PHILLIP HUTCHINS, JERRY KAPP, and DON WILKINSON, bequeath our good standing in the Key Club to Jack Stewart, Dwight Hicks, and Garry Brown.

We, DON JOHNSON, BILLY SIMMONS, FRED THOMPSON, and HOWARD CREWS, will our long hair-cuts to Ed Pinson, Gary Worrell, and Jimmy Bowman, who go Army style.

I, JIMMY FREEMAN, leave my love for rockets and space ships to Mr. Bost. (We heard he wants to be the first man to land on the moon.)

I, JERRY ELLER, regretfully leave a certain blonde haired, blue eyed lass in the rising Junior class. Hands off fellas!

I, JUDY TUTTLE, leave my seat in Commercial Law to anyone who likes Mr. Dyer as well as I.

We, PAT REID and ALICE REID, leave our caps and gowns to Bettie Reid and Virginia Reid for further use.

I, BARRY JAMES, will my tremendous love for cigars to anyone with an income big enough to afford them.

We, JERRY HEATH and ROGER THOMPSON, would leave our height to John Hunter and Connie Kapp; but, gee, we need every inch available.

I, LINDA TUTTLE, leave my love for service stations to James Hoilman although my reason is probably different from his.

We, BECKY COLLINS, CAROL PATTERSON, and KATHERINE HARTLAGE, leave our dramatic abilities to Wayne James and Linda Fansler.

We, BARBARA EZZELL, MARSHA THOMPSON, SHIRLEY TILLEY, and RONALD CASEY, leave our gift of gab to Phyllis Holden, Genie Pettit, and Barbara Moore.

I, SHIRLEY PREVETTE, after struggling through Biology for the fourth time, finally leave it.

I, CLARENCE PARKER, leave my title as "old married man" to Grey Hardie.

Last but definitely not least, I, LARRY PINSON, leave my nickname "Tiny" to Coach Malcom. He fits the description better.

Our sanity having been proved (?), we now declare this document to be the last will and testament and affix our seal in witness thereof:

Vicki Williams, President; Barbara Cooke, Vice President; Betsy Wilson, Secretary; Frances Ring, Treasurer; Wanda Johns, Reporter; Miss McNew, Advisor; Doris Farmer; Shirley Dull; Chester Loggins; Barry Carroll.

Four basic requirements for membership in the National Honor Society are leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Acceptance of membership is the highest honor to be received in high school.

The Quill and Scroll is an honorary club in the field of journalism, requirements for membership being: Juniors or Seniors in the upper third of their class scholastically, having done superior work in journalism, in school publications, Beacon or LARENIM staff. Proposed members must be recommended by the advisor of the Publication Department and approved by the executive secretary of the society.

National Thespians Society

This is an honor society for students having superior ability in dramatics. The student must have participated in some production to the extent of one hundred hours, in so doing, proving by his performance that he is worthy of membership.

Junior Marshals

The honor of being chosen junior marshal is given to the top-ranking twelve in the junior class. Their scholastic rank is figured on the basis of semester averages from the first year through the first semester of the third year.

Sponsored by Kiwanis International, Key Club International is a service organization, its main purpose being to serve in any way possible and to train today's young men for good citizenship and leadership in the future.

The club's name is derived from the fact that its membership is chosen from the key boys of the school who are approved unanimously by the club and faculty for membership.

The Mineral Springs chapter of the Anchor Club, sponsored by Pilot International, has been established this year. Its charter members, consisting of ten Seniors, ten Juniors, and five Sophomores, are the "key" girls of the school, voted unanimously by the club. Charter members were selected by the faculty.

The main purpose of the club is to serve for the betterment of our school. One of the main requirements of the club is one service project per semester.

WAYNE WALKER

Jack Edwards, co-captain of the team, has played throughout his high school years. He was an excellent pass receiver and a great high school punter. He plans to continue football in college next fall.

Co-captain, Lynn McDowell, made a very good showing in his position as left halfback. He always fought hard to keep the Bulldogs in the line of victory.

Wayne Walker fought victoriously in his position as end. He was good at kicking off and receiving passes.

C. J. Dills played fullback. He started off well when he scored the winning touchdown in the Gray game his first year on varsity.

Chester Loggins gave a good showing as he played guard on offense and linebacker on defense. He was an outstanding player.

Tommy Shermer played tackle on both offense and defense. He had a desire to help the team and plans to continue playing football in college next year.

Larry Pinson, too, played tackle both ways, strong and fast. He represents good college material.

Edsel Carter, small but fast, played left halfback and scored extra points well.

Joe Merrill liked to play very much. He fought hard in his position as guard and was a very good tackler.

Don Welborn played for the good of the team instead of himself as fullback.

Jerry Eller played right halfback and did well in throwing running passes. He was a good runner.

Jerry Wiles loved to play but he injured his shoulder late in the season. He played tackle.
